

Istrski rubini Shiraz 2008

An inky dark ruby wine with lots of maturity – showing aromas of cigar box, tobacco, autumn leaves and savoury complexity along with plums and dried fruit. It's big, rich and ripe to taste, with spicy, dark chocolate and dark berry fruit, backed by supple and polished tannins, gentle acidity and lots of fruit sweetness. A big rich, spicy wine for those that love power in their glasses.

Wine description:

- Variety : 100 % Shiraz
- Color : The look is clear with a pronounced deep, ruby color with gentle, brick hues.
- Aroma : We smell prunes, tobacco, dark chocolate, ripe cherries, graphite and spices.
- Taste : In the taste we meet ripe dark berries, liquorice, dark chocolate and a pleasant spiciness that emphasizes the structure with a long finish. The wine is velvety and soft with ripe sweet tannins that accompany us into a long and composed aftertaste. An excellent base, which has gained in fullness, maturity and aristocratic character by maturing in a sophisticatedly selected wooden container. Extremely rich taste originating from overripe grapes, a note of juiciness and ripe tannins are a guarantee for the longevity of this wine.
